Norm Brozenick is a Stellar Advisor who provides experience-based knowledge, strategy skills, and executive expertise to help Stellar Solutions satisfy customer critical needs in the United States and abroad.

With over 31 years of military service, six as a general officer, Norm directed organizations of up to 19,000 people in the conduct of global operations. He commanded at multiple levels, including a group, wing, combined/joint special operations air component, joint special operations task forces, and a sub-unified theater command.

His military career included extensive interagency collaboration building partner nation security capability and capacity across Asia-Pacific, commanding joint special operations task forces in Iraq and Afghanistan, and providing politico-military counsel as a Joint Staff member of sixteen Secretary of State delegations. As a strategic planner and programmer for Air Force Special Operations Command, Norm developed a five-year, $11B U.S. Special Operations Command investment plan in conjunction with a five-year, $7B U.S. Air Force plan for procurement of aircraft, infrastructure, logistics, munitions, and special tactics team capabilities.

Entering the Air Force in 1983 as a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy, he retired as a Major General and command pilot with over 4,000 flying hours in mobility and special operations aircraft. Norm's affiliations include the Air Commando Association, serving as the Chairman of the Board.

With unique skillsets in international engagement, resource planning, problem solving, and strategic communications, Norm has proven ability to take diverse organizations to new heights. Most recently, his strategic perspective helped Stellar Solutions clients guide discussion on deterrence, controlled escalation, and electronic warfare with military leaders of an allied nation, and illuminate emerging U.S., allied, and partner nation precision guided munitions requirements.
